Good News—Ladies! Now you can hear . . .

"VIRGINIA ROBERTS"

On WHO, 11:30-11:45 A. M., Monday, Wednesday and Friday

Occident Flour is the sponsor of this new show that reviewers declare is one of the most pleasing variety programs on the air today.

In addition to Virginia Roberts, whose timely tips on wartime home economics and interesting revelations about the lives of world-famous people are a highlight of the show, the program features the songs and music of The Occident Singers and the wit and humor of a leading MC.

Composed of two sets of brothers, the Occident Singers are one of the most unusual quartets in radio. They work without instrumental background, supplying their own effects with novelty voice arrangements. Tune in WHO's 50,000-watt Voice for Victory every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 11:30 A. M. for superior entertainment.
